In addition to the Cover Sheet (Section A), your submission must include the following parts (Sections B–E below). Do not include additional cover letters, binders, folders, or attachments.

B. Statement of Purpose/Mission Statement & Brief Institutional History

Provide your institution's mission statement or statement of purpose as well as a brief institutional history (not to exceed one single-spaced page; no less than 12-point type).

C. Narrative

Address questions 1–5 thoroughly and succinctly, using no more than six single-spaced pages (no less than 12-point type) for the five questions combined. The jurors considering the pool of potential medal recipients will focus carefully on your answers to these questions.

1. Executive Summary: In no more than one single-spaced page, describe why you believe your library or museum deserves to win the National Medal for Museum and Library Service.
2. Community: Quantify and describe the population groups/communities your institution is reaching through its community services. How did you identify these particular needs? What particular community needs do you address through your programs, services, and partnerships? Describe how your library or museum serves community members with special needs.
3. Programming: Provide examples of the programs and services you have developed for these population groups/communities. How does your institution involve your community in the development of your programs? How have these partnerships increased your ability to reach out to the targeted population groups and communities you serve? How do your programs reflect your institution's mission and strategic plan?
4. Impact and Evaluation: Describe what impact your institution's programs and services have had on the identified community needs. Do you conduct a formal evaluation of your programs? If so, what have you have learned about meeting the needs of your audiences? How have you used this information to plan future programs and services?
5. Financial Sustainability: List the three primary sources of revenue that will sustain your institution in the future. Please describe any private or non-profit groups that support the mission and activities of your institution. If a budget surplus or deficit for one or both of the two previous fiscal years is shown on the Cover Sheet, provide an explanation as part of this section of the narrative.

D. Institutional Financial Statements

Include a copy of your institution's financial statements for the past two complete fiscal years. If your fiscal year is complete but not yet audited, please submit these unaudited figures and label them as such. If your institution is part of a larger organization (municipal government, university, etc.) do not include financial statements for the parent organization, only for your institution.

E. Letters of Support

Your institution must submit no more than three letters of support with the Nomination Form. These letters should come from community members who have direct knowledge of the institution's community service. We recommend that the letters come from different segments of the broader community served by the institution and from individuals who have either witnessed or experienced first-hand a particular program or service. Nomination letters from members of Congress are welcome and will not count against the three-letter maximum. Address letters to the Director of the Institute of Museum and Library Services and include them with this Nomination Form.
